This training is being offered for those who have completed the 21-Day Racial Equity Challenge and/or done some personal or group study to get to know their own privilege. We hope participants have explored the systemic definitions of racism and are willing to continue to move forward in addressing the racism in our culture.

For more information, please contact the ICCCC Exec. Dir., Rev. Will McGarvey at interfaithccc@gmail.com or 925-933-6030. Please go to our Interfaith Racial Justice Resources page at <http://interfaithccc.org/RacialJustice/> to learn more about the many resources available for everyone to be able to do their own anti-racism work. There you will find many free, online or books and movies to pay to read or watch resources.
