

Annapolis Friends Meeting (Quakers) warmly invites you:
Qi and Grace: An Embodied Lord's Prayer
with Kaleo and Elise Ching

Aloha means, "in the bosom of the universe, the breath of God'."
— Nana Lihilihipuamelekule Veary, Hawaiian spiritual teacher

The Sacred can be experienced through many cultures, traditions, and ways. Years ago, while Elise and I were on the Big Island of Hawai'i, we looked down into the sulfurous belly and cliffs of the powerful volcanic crater of Halema'uma'u. In this belly of Mother Earth a solitary white koa'e kea bird circled and danced in the glistening light. At this moment of aloha, we were inspired to choreograph the Embodied Lord's Prayer.

The Embodied Lord's Prayer, integrates the ancient Taoist shamanic healing practice of Qigong and a version of Christ's Lord's Prayer — modified by Reverend Steve Harms to render the words closer to its original meaning in Aramaic — a balance of feminine and masculine energies.
